THE BULL A VICTOR. - A dispatch from Madrid says that a disgraceful scene occurred there Saturday, Twelve thousand spectators witnessed a stru .gle between a small panther, an old lioness, a large bear and a powerfu bull. The bull soon terribly gored the panther and lioness. The bear gave the bull more trouble. It received several terrific tossings and a number of bad wound, from which the blood flowed freely, before it gave in. The speciators were so enthusiastic over the bull's victory that they sea cely noticed the reports of a gun fired by a keeper to good the bessts when at first they did not show fight. Twenty persons, however, hurnedly left the galleries, Several of them were seriously wounded by slugs. One lost both eyes and another one eye. The keeper was ar rested. The three gored animals died only after many hours of suffering.
